What Are Common Mistakes Police Make?

Police must have PROBABLE CAUSE to arrest a driver for a DWI offense

PROBABLE CAUSE n. sufficient reason based upon known facts to believe a crime has been committed or that certain property is connected with a crime.

POLICE OFFICERS CANNOT:

TAKE SHORTCUTS

not in accordance with Texas Breath Testing Regulations or their very own DWI training

FOLLOW a driver to his or her house without permission or probable cause

Stop a vehicle at an IMPROPER ROADBLOCK

DETAIN a driver for longer than necessary

a vehicle based on an anonymous 911 call with no prior observations or based on a vehicle driving too slow or fast (without proof), weaving within the boundaries of a single lane, or simply based on a "hunch"

Base an ARREST on driver statements alone
